The Blue Duck can be reached in several ways:

FROM MELBOURNE VIA PRINCES HIGHWAY TO BAIRNSDALE.

Turn off at Bairnsdale to the Omeo Highway. Once in Omeo take the Omeo Highway for 30 kilometres. This is a winding bitumen road which bring you to the front door of the Duck

FROM MELBOURNE TO MT. BEAUTY

Then to Falls Creek, past Rocky Valley Dam, across the Bogong High Plain to the Omeo Highway. Turn right and travel 11 kilometres to the Blue Duck. This is the most scenic Road but the Falls Creek Road is closed during the snow season.

FROM MELBOURNE TO BRIGHT

Over Mt. Hotham to Omeo and the Omeo Highway to the Blue Duck Inn.

FROM ALBURY TO TALLANGATTA

Past Mt Wills and Glen Wills, along the Mitta Mitta Valley to the Blue Duck, part gravel, part bitumen.

Falls Creek is approximately 40 minutes from the Duck and 50 minutes to Mount Hotham and Dinner Plain.

The Blue Duck Inn Hotel

The Historic Pub on the banks of the Cobungra River

The historic Blue Duck Inn stands in splendid isolation at the confluence of three Alpine trout streams – the Cobungra, the Bundara and the Mitta Mitta Rivers, surrounded by one million acres of alpine national park.

The Blue Duck Inn offers the ultimate getaway in serene and picturesque surrounds, it is an artists and photographers delight, a very unique environment generating its own power, and where television and mobile phone reception is a rarity.
